

Show Schedule

This schedule will act as a guideline for horses in the Ledyard line-up this year. This schedule is subject to change, depending on the development of the horses and their riders. For new or prospective students, I will be available to coach you at these horse shows, as well as other horse shows that you may attend, depending upon availability. All riders please check with me on an individual basis to discuss your personalized horse show plan for the year. Horse shows are chosen based on several factors including tradition, reputation, management, footing, show staff, and overall historical customer satisfaction.

A horse show should be a place where riders enjoy a life- enriching and positive experience. This experience should not only develop the talents of their horse and foster goal setting, but a horse show should create memories worth cherishing with our families and equine partners alike. Make no mistake—a horse show is in fact a competition in which we are there do just that—compete. At the end of the day though, it always about the horse, and respecting what he does for us both in and out of the show ring. At every event that you compete in this year, whether it is a local venue or one of great prestige, I challenge you to take a moment and consider how fortunate you are to have the opportunity to play this game called horse showing. Then I want you to be sure to put your arms around your horse's neck and give him a big hug to thank him for making your passion possible.

I wish you all the best in a successful and fun horse show season.
